

“The financial industry is a highly regulated environment. Everyone is very concerned about protecting their data, so it’s very important for us to keep our security posture up. That’s the reason we picked DefenseStorm. They provided a very specific service we were looking for.”

Izak Cronier
Chief Information Officer
nCino

“nCino’s IT team now has unprecedented insight into network events. It’s not just the technological tools, but the experience in banking and security technology that makes DefenseStorm a valuable asset.”

Jordan Pike
Direct of Security Operations
